

European financial integration and EU Member States:

The impact of the Banking Union and beyond

Workshop organised at Sciences Po Law School, 4 & 5 October 2021

REGISTRATION REQUIRED

4 October 2021

13:15-13:30: Opening – Diane Fromage, Sciences Po

Chair: Régis Bismuth, Sciences Po

13:30-15:30: Panel 1

Financial supervision in larger Member States: France, Germany and Italy between domestic and European influence - Diane Fromage, Sciences Po

Financial market supervision in Austria and how it has changed due to EU reforms - Paul Weismann, University of Salzburg

Discussant: Raffaele d'Ambrosio, Bank of Italy and Olivier de Bandt, Banque de France

15:30-16:00: Coffee break

16:00-18:00: Panel 2

UK - Takis Tridimas, King's College London

What is the set-up of the financial safety net in Poland after implementing the EU financial law regulatory reforms? - Jakub Kerlin, Single Resolution Board

Discussant: Jonathan Overett-Somnier, European Banking Authority

Dinner (chairs, speakers and discussants)

5 October 2021

Chair: Klaus Tuori, University of Turku

9:00-11:00 : Panel 3

The reform of institutional framework for financial supervision in Latvia - Mārtiņš Rudzītis, Paris II

Banking Union and the 'inbetweeners': institutional insights from the Croatian experience - Marta Božina Beroš, University of Pula, Ivana Parać Vukomanović, Croatian national bank, Ivana Bajakić, University of Zagreb

Discussant: Eleftheria Diamanti, Single Resolution Board

11:00-11:30 : Coffee break

This workshop is organised in the framework of "IMPACTEBU", a project that has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No 895841.

11:30-12:30 : Panel 4

In the shadow of the spirit: reform of banking supervision in Portugal from 2011 to 2021 - Martinho Lucas Pires, Católica Law School Lisbon.

Discussant: Despina Chatzimanoli, European Banking Authority

